

General Notice

Computer Laboratory Usage rules and regulations

The SLIIT computer labs are provided to support the academic computer requirements of the currently enrolled SLIIT students. Use of the labs for other purposes is prohibited. The rules below are intended to maintain an environment in the labs where all students can work effectively.

- Students must have their SLIIT identification card with them to use any computer lab.
- Lab patrons may not duplicate or use copyrighted materials without appropriate licenses and/or permission.
- Consuming food and beverages within the computer lab is prohibited.
- All users must respect the privacy of others, and courteous behavior is expected in the facilities.

No user may engage in behavior that will disturb or distract other students. The use of cell phones in the facilities is restricted. Phones should be taken outside when receiving a call, and ringers should be turned to vibrate when possible.

- Changing the current hardware and software configuration is prohibited. Do not unplug the power cables of the devices.
- Users may leave their bags at the rack before entering the computer lab.
- The repeated violation of lab rules may result in lab privileges being suspended.
- Users may not engage in behavior that creates a hostile atmosphere for other students wishing to use the lab.
- Before leaving the lab, users must log off from their logins. Remember to put your chair back in place before leaving.
